Best Sense of Humor

Don't worry I'm coming.

2.

A pair of identical strangers.

3.

Huh?

4.

Sure it has its ups and downs.

5.

Waiter, my check please.

6.

It's less crowded than the beach.

You sent for the right gun slingers.

7.

8.

Mommy's baking brownies!

9.

It's good nailpolish.

10.

When does the circus start?

11.

I hope my date arrives soon.

12.

Laugh; I just cut my foot off.

13.

Malabar in the fifth.

A real swinger.

14.

15.

Wanna see a dive?

16.

There's the mailman!

17.

You're right, the paint is wet.

18.

I'm Homeward bound.

19.

Five point stance.

20.

I just beat a Vet!

Where's the dragon, lady?

21.

22.

C. W. Moss?

23.

I'm studying my French; what else?

24.

Which way to Grandma's house?

25.

I'm looking for the Madhatter.

26.

Who swiped my golf club?

Do I know you?

27.

28.

Stay out of my yard, Injun.

29.

I've never seen a dragon.

30.

Daddy, will you turn on the Alfred Hitchcock movie?

31.

Don't hit me.

32.

Here, catch Tinkerbell.

I'm not hidding anything.

Out for a jog.

34.

35.

Drop it, #28.

36.

Sure I'm on the grass.

37.

Don't. It's not a grapefruit.

Heck no; I catch them all the time.

38.

39.

Will you tuck us in?

40.

1 1/2 miles in 2 minutes flat; not bad for a girl jockey.

41.

Ready for action.

42.

It's that darn peanut butter.

43.

That's close enough.

44.

Who steamed away with my train?

Oh; I was just looking for you.

66.

My but you're aggressive.

Let me entertain you.

67.

68.

Tragedies make me sad.

69.

Wanna play croquet?

70.

I'm scared; you pick him up.

71.

What are you and mommy doing, daddy?

72.

Okay, Try something.

73.

It's an easy life.

Hurry up with my surfboard.

74.

75.

I'd like a nutmeg milkshake.

76.

Would you like to rest a while on my blanket?

Have you seen my basketball?

77.
78.

The Winner.

79. Hey, what's that?

80. I'm going, too.

I'm getting hot.

92.

104. Hi, handsome.

105. I got a B+

106.

This is my original.

Which way is the goal line?

I know that there is a lot of unkindness in the world, but if I knew only you I wouldn't think that unkindness could exist. I hope you don't meet up with any unkindness.

Peace be with you —

The Atherton Rebels opened the 1969 season on September 5 against Thomas Jefferson. Thomas Jefferson handed Coach Kleier his first and only loss of the season by scoring 18 points and holding Atherton's offense scoreless.

Thomas Jefferson 18 Atherton 0

The Eastern Eagles, who had never lost a game to Atherton, were jolted by the Rebels in the second half. Witt Wisman passed to Ben Wood for two touchdowns. The Rebels scored 53 points breaking a school record.

"Mission Impossible," is how the paper described the tremendous victory of the Rebels over Male. The offense, led by Witt Wisman and David Schadt, struck for 14 points, while the defense, headed by Scott Duke and Sheldon St. Clair, allowed Male only 12 points.

Atherton 14 Male 12

Coach Kleier, worried about his team being over confident, traveled next to Waggner. In a game hard fought by both sides, Atherton won 21-6. Lee Zimmerman ran for over 100 yds. and two touchdowns.

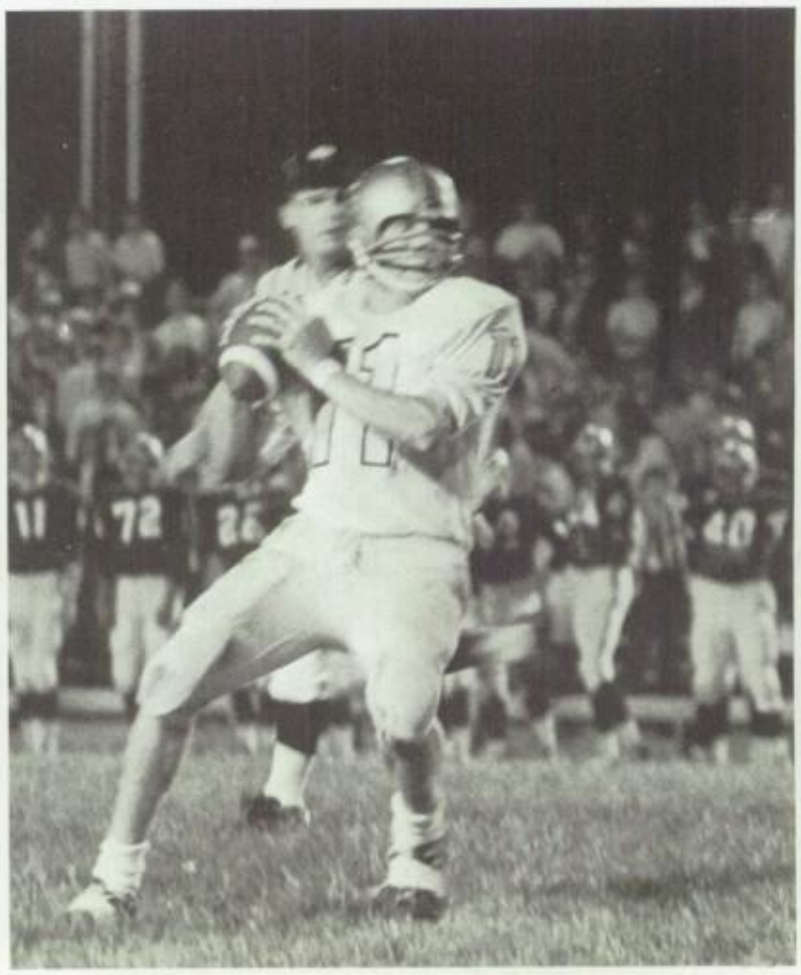
One sure way not to lose is to shut out the other team, and the Rebel defense did just that against DeSales. The defensive effort was headed by George Turner, stopping DeSales number one receiver, Steve Green, Paul Whitty a newly established linebaker scored on a pass interception to break the game open. The offense also did their part by scoring 2 other touchdowns giving Atherton a 20-0 victory.

On October 10, Atherton played host to the Manual Crimsons. By virtue of a 19-7 win, the 69-70 team became the first in school history to defeat both Male and Manual in the same season. The Rebel's had beaten Manual only once since 1950. Manual scored the first time they got the ball, but were held scoreless the rest of the game by the tough Rebel defense. Ben Wood scored on a 33 yd. pass, Lee Zimmerman on a 14 yd. run, and Don Douglass on an 8 yd. pass. The Rebel's trailed until late in the fourth quarter, when they scored two touchdowns.

Atherton 19 Manual 7



On October 31, Atherton defeated Iroquois 21-6. Atherton scored first on a 34 yard pass from Witt Wisman to Don Douglas. Iroquois scored late in the first half, but their attempt for the two point conversion failed. Lee Zimmerman broke the game open in the fourth quarter with a 76 yard run. The final touchdown was scored late in the game on a 14 yard run by Witt Wisman.

Atherton 21 Iroquois 6

Atherton's 34-22 victory over Shawnee marked the first time in seven years that they had beaten Shawnee. Shawnee came into the game with a unimpressive record, but moved ahead 22-20 early in the fourth quarter. Late in the fourth quarter, Atherton started a drive from their own one yard line. They marched the length of the field in ten plays. Shawnee fumbled the kickoff after the touchdown, and the Rebels scored another touchdown on the final play of the game.

Homecoming was a happy occasion as Atherton defeated Westport 26-0. The Rebel offense was led by the running of Richard Hobbs, filling in for Lee Zimmerman, who was injured. The Rebels had little trouble moving the ball against the Warhawks and had two touchdowns nullified because of penalties. The shutout was the defensive team's second of the season.

Atherton 26 Westport 0

On a rainy Saturday afternoon, the Rebels tied the Central Yellowjackets. After jumping off to a 13-0 first quarter lead, the Central defense got tough and the game ended in a 13-13 tie. The Rebels tried three field goals in the game, the last coming with 30 seconds left in the game, but all three failed.

The 1969-70 basketball season got off to a slow start as the Rebels lost their first three games. They lost to Manual 68-62, Durrett 63-54, and St. Xavier 70-49.

The first victory of the season came on December 13 as the Rebels crushed the Jeffersontown Chargers 57-44. The win streak was a short one however, as Atherton lost to Butler 51-49, and Shelby County 46-32 one week later.

The second victory came when the Rebels defeated Trinity 70-67. In the next game, played against highly ranked Central, Atherton held an eight point lead early in the game but fell to the Yellow-jackets by a score 68-60. The Rebels held on to beat Bishop David 63-59 after blowing a 13 point lead early in the second half.

The next three games proved to be disastrous for Atherton, as they lost to Ahrens 64-58, Eastern 54-49, and number-one ranked Male 68-42.

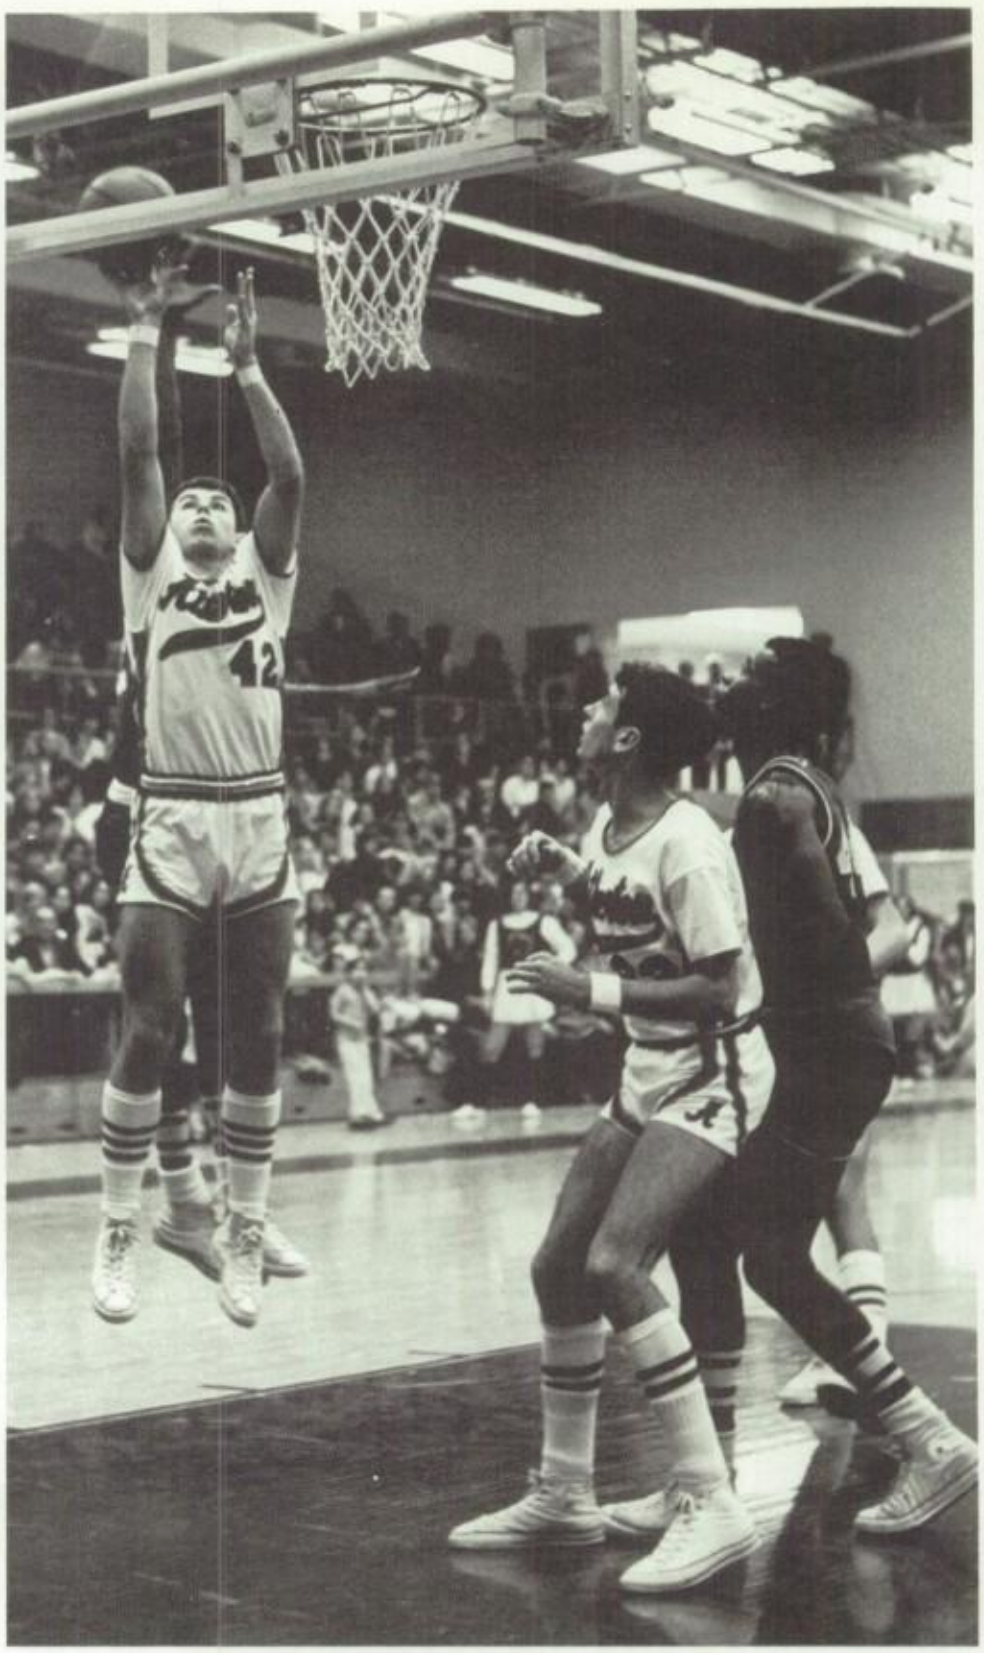
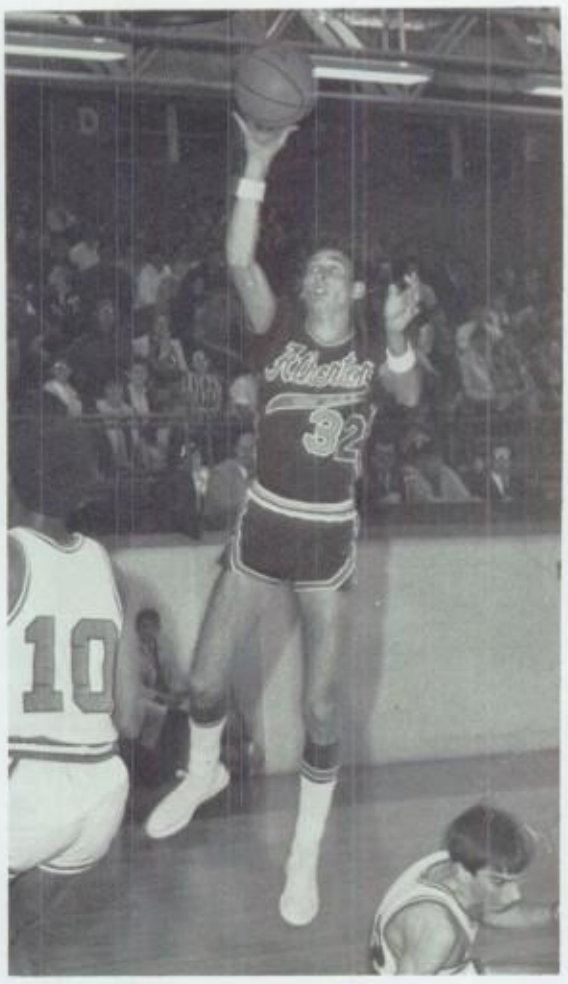
On January 17, Atherton easily defeated the Iroquois Raiders by a score of 83-51.

The first upset of the season came as the Rebels defeated Central City in the first round of the Louisville Invitational Tournament. Central City came into the game with a 19-0 record and was ranked second in the state. Gary Byrd led all scorers in the game with 29 points. Doug Davis tipped the ball into the basket with one second left in the game to give the Rebels a 56-54 victory.

In the next game of the tournament the Rebels weren't so fortunate, as they lost to Pleasure Ridge Park 63-44.



What goes up - must come down!!!



No thank you.

"It's mine"

On January 30th, the Rebels lost to the DeSales Colts 63-44 in a game played at Atherton. The following night, Atherton played Seneca and although the Rebels won 56-51, it proved to be a costly victory. Gary Byrd was slugged in the face by a Seneca player during the game and was knocked unconscious. Gary had a broken nose and missed three games as a result of the incident.

The Rebels held a five point lead with three minutes to play in a game at Shawnee before losing to the Indians 58-56. Fern Creek had hopes of an upset as they led the Rebels 29-28 at half time. But Atherton had other ideas as they outscored the Tigers 42-21 in the second half for a 70-50 win.

It seemed as though Atherton was going to have an easy time with Waggener's Wildcats as the Rebels built up a 33-20 lead at the half, but Waggener rallied in the second half to win 62-59.

Gary Byrd returned to the starting line-up as the Rebels faced the highly ranked Central City Golden Tide, the team which Atherton upset in the Louisville Invitational Tournament earlier in the year. Central City came into the game with a 22-1 record but the Rebels again beat them. This time David Smith was the hero as he hit a driving lay-up with 25 seconds to play to give the Rebels a 64-62 victory. The Rebels hit 13 of 15 second half shots for an almost unbelievable 87%.

Art Club

The Art Club has great appeal for artistically minded students. By exposure to new and unusual areas of interest, club members have developed a deeper understanding and greater appreciation of all forms of visual arts. Attending museums and exhibits have been meaningful learning experiences, as well as enjoyable ones. Membership is not limited to students taking art classes. All students are invited to participate in the club's activities.
